

PRIVACY STATEMENT – Bright Accounts

Bright Accounts is committed to protecting your privacy and maintaining the security of any personal information received from you. We strictly adhere to the requirements of the data protection legislation in the UK. The purpose of this statement is to explain to you what personal information we collect and how we may use it.

We may ask to know your personal details (name, address and email). We use your personal information to update you about new products/services and changes to our web site. We will only contact you with your consent.

We do not sell, rent or exchange your personal information with any third party for commercial reasons.

We follow strict security procedures in the storage and disclosure of information which you have given us, to prevent unauthorised access in accordance with the UK data protection legislation.

We do not collect sensitive information about you.

Our privacy policy may be updated and changed from time to time. The latest policy will be available on the web site and we recommend that you review this on a regular basis.

This privacy policy applies to this site and all other sites operated by Bright Accounts unless different terms are specified on that site.

If you have any questions about privacy please contact us.
